Play above the clouds

McLemore is a world-class golf destination in the Southeast. Three masterfully-designed courses offer plenty of ways to hone your game in a dramatic setting. Among them, the Highlands course has secured its place on Golf Digest's "Top 100 Courses to Play in America". Guests can enjoy two 18-hole courses and an entertaining 6-hole short course — all with spectacular mountain vistas as far as the eye can see.

The Highlands

18-HOLE MOUNTAINTOP COURSE

Located 2,300 feet above sea level and designed by Rees Jones and Bill Bergin, few courses offer the range of hole types or the drama inherent in its landscape. The mountaintop golf experience sets itself apart from the rest with memorable jaw-dropping views of Lookout Mountain.

The Outpost

18-HOLE COURSE OPENING SUMMER 2024

Situated on the eastern cliff edge of Lookout Mountain, The Outpost is designed as a walkable, mountaintop golf experience laid out by Bill Bergin and Rees Jones. This walkable mountain golf delivers a pure golf experience unlike anywhere else. The Outpost promises to be one of the most scenic and enjoyable courses to play in the southeast and is scheduled to open in Summer 2024.

The Cairn

6-HOLE SHORT COURSE

The Cairn Short Course is one of the several jewels in the crown of McLemore. Designed by Bill Bergin, The Cairn rests on the north side of the Clubhouse and overlooks the dramatic and award-winning 18th hole on the Highlands Course.

Culinary delights

Choose from an array of culinary experiences that are as captivating as the views. The spirit of McLemore will be evident throughout the curated food and beverage offerings. We take special care to source the freshest ingredients whenever possible, as well as exceptional wines, spirits, and inspired hand-crafted cocktails.

AULD ALLIANCE

This upscale dining experience bridges cultures and cuisines while offering magnificent, cliff-edge views over McLemore Cove. Auld Alliance is Cloudland's culinary answer to the partnership between France and Scotland established in 1295. The menu takes cues from the spirit of the huntsman — protein-centric, foraged and wild in an elevated setting.

CROFT

Indulge and imbibe within a comfortably rustic setting, The Croft offers hearty, yet elegant breakfast, lunch, cocktails and dinner options for everyone. Named for the small farms sprinkled across Scotland's landscape, the Croft focuses on simple, fresh ingredients.

THE POCKET

While each morning begins at The Pocket with a sunrise, coffee, and croissant, numerous additional breakfast menu options are available into the early afternoon. Named for the 20,000+ acre Crockford-Pigeon Mountain Wilderness Area in McLemore Cove, The Pocket celebrates one of North America's most plentiful locations of botanicals.

Area attractions

Adventure. Relaxing. Reconnecting. You name it, you'll find it nearby. One of the things we love most about our location is how much there is to do without having to go far. We'll help you find activities you didn't even know you enjoyed.
